

BIT FIFTY VOTES CAST

Result of the One Hundred and Thirty-First Ballot.

TEN ABSENT, THREE PAIRS

NO DANGER OF ELECTION, EVEN WITH 26 FOR CHOICE.

Nine of McCune's Supporters Were Not Present at Ball Cast, Causing His Vote to Drop to 17—The Other Candidates, Except Nebeker, Suffered Small Losses.

ONE HUNDRED AND THIRTY-FIRST JOINT BALLOT.

McCune (Dem.)	17
King (Dem.)	15
Nebeker (Dem.)	9
Cannon (Ill. Rep.)	8
Sutherland (Rep.)	10
Votes Cast	50
Abstent	10
Paired	3
Total	63
Necessary to a choice	26
The vote in detail:

SENATORS.

For McCune.—Chambers, Evans, Smoot, Tanner, Whitney—5.
For King.—Rideout—1.
For Nebeker.—Bennion, W. G. Nebeker, Perry, Thomas—4.
For Rideout.—Aquila Nebeker—1.
For Cannon.—Kiesel, Shurtliff—2.
For Sutherland.—Alder, Howell—2.
Absent.—Senators Cannon, Robison, Wright (for McCune)—3.

REPRESENTATIVES.

For McCune.—Bennion, Bywater, Cummings, Farr, Galt, Harbo, Lloyd, Mansfield, McArthur, Parry, Royance, Robertson—12.
For King.—Greenwood, Larsen, Stewart, Wheeler—4.
For Nebeker.—Betts, Cook, Jackson, Lapham, Taylor—5.
For Rideout.—Forman—1.
For Cannon.—Bramwell, Ivers, Johnson, Smith, Taylor—5.
For Sutherland.—Crosby, Christian, Holmgren, Miller, Murdoch, Richards, Robinson, Sorenson—5.
Absent.—Clyde, Hansen, O'Neill, Shepard (for McCune); Fisher (for King); N. J. Harris (for Cannon); C. Z. Harris (for Sutherland)—7.
Paired.—Gallagher, Welch (Sutherland) not voting, paired with Hansen and O'Neill; Reid (for McCune) not voting, paired with N. J. Harris—3.

At no time since the voting commenced for a United States senator in the Utah legislature on Jan. 18, have so few votes been announced by members of the legislature as were cast yesterday on the 131st joint ballot. Ten members were absent and three refrained from voting in order to pair with absentees. The number necessary to a choice was only 26, but no candidate even approached that figure.

The support given to A. W. McCune dropped to 17, the lowest since the absence of Senators Cannon, Robison and Wright. Representative Clyde, Hansen, O'Neill and Shepard, the pairing of Representative Reid's vote with that of Representative N. J. Harris, and Senator Thomas' complimentary vote for Aquila Nebeker.

Senator Frank J. Cannon's vote was also affected by the absence of Representative N. J. Harris, and Judge King's support suffered the loss of Representative Fisher's vote, the latter gentleman having gone to Logan with the home committee on claims.

The absence of Representative C. Z. Harris and the pairing of the votes of Representatives Callender and Welch with Hansen's and O'Neill's, caused a loss of three votes to George Sutherland.

There were no speeches, explanations of votes nor unusual discussion of any sort, and after hearing the declaration of the ballot's result the assembly dissolved till this noon.

A SAD ERRAND.

Missionary Cornwall Returns With the Remains of a Companion.

J. A. Cornwall, who has been laboring as a missionary in Louisiana for the past thirty months, returned home a few days ago with the body of Louis A. Warren of Price, one of the missionaries who died of malaria in the state. Mr. Cornwall took the remains to Price and remained until after the funeral services, arriving in Salt Lake Wednesday. For the past year he has presided over one of the branches of the southern states mission. His home is Mill Creek.

So much depends upon the purity of the blood that by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla many different diseases are cured.

Bamberger sells coal right.

NOTICE.

From the waters of a mountain spring, P. V. Lee, White waters, Telephone 44. MOUNTAIN ICE CO.

The Kealy Institute for the cure of the drunkard, morphine and cigarette habits. The only Kealy Institute in the state. Address box 49, Salt Lake, Utah.

Spring lamb, first of the season, at Palace Meat Market. Send your orders in early. J. M. Marriott, proprietor. Phone 108.

BOARD OF HEALTH.

The food inspector, Mr. J. W. Ure, has just completed an examination of every food supply in Salt Lake City. A number of permits were granted. The inspector says the most ideal ice lake and the one reaching the highest degree of excellence is the Pleasant Valley lake, supplied by a mountain spring. The best is none too good. White waters. Telephone 44.

ATTENTION LADIES.

The 5c and 10c Store, 84 Main Street, can interest you today. White embroideries, new designs, 10c to 15c. Colored embroideries, new designs, 10c to 15c. Pretty plaid ribbons, 10c to 15c. Plain satin ribbons, 10c to 15c. Bright colors baby ribbons, a half, 10c to 15c. Hair nets, all shades, 10c to 15c. White lace, 10c to 15c. New shell hairpins, 10c to 15c. Pretty embroidered handkerchiefs, 10c to 15c. White agate buttons, a card, 10c to 15c. Good wire hairpins, 2 bunches, 10c to 15c. For...

At feather dusters, 10c to 15c. Lamp shades, per dozen, 10c to 15c. Corset laces, per dozen, 10c to 15c. Curtain clasps, per pair, 10c to 15c. Full length shoe laces, 10c to 15c. Green.

OBJECTS TO BANKRUPTCY

COMPLICATIONS IN THE MATTER OF E. J. HORROCKS' PETITION BEING DECLARED A BANKRUPT.

Crouse & Brandegee Allege Fraud On the Part of Horrocks In Stating His Financial Condition.

In the federal court yesterday Henry Crouse and Edward Brandegee, copartners, under the firm name of Crouse & Brandegee of Utica, N. Y., filed objections to Edward J. Horrocks of Ogden being declared a bankrupt. They allege that Horrocks is indebted to them in the sum of $20,000, with interest from March 2, 1935, and costs of a judgment obtained against him by confession. It is alleged Horrocks was a retail merchant in Ogden and bought of the petitioners, but he had stock on hand to the amount of $12,000 at the time of the purchase, that he owed his father $20,000 and a CIO claim $500, making his actual assets $12,500, but Crouse & Brandegee now declare that Horrocks' statement was false; that instead of $20,000 stock on hand he had not to exceed $1,000; that instead of $12,000 in bank he had not to exceed $500; that instead of owing his father $20,000, the amount was $1,000; and that there were other creditors whose claims amounted to $1,000. It is also claimed that on Feb. 28, 1935, Horrocks made a general assignment of all his property to E. J. Kohn, who for the purpose of the assignment, but previous to making the assignment Horrocks took out of the business $2,000 and bought with this money from his father, Samuel Horrocks, a piece of property, which he deeded to his wife and which was not contained in the general deed of assignment. A suit to set aside the transaction is now pending in the federal court. It is also claimed that the amount of $2,000 has been paid, leaving a balance of $2,000, which was paid on March 2, 1935. Horrocks will leave for Utah this morning to subpoena witnesses in a connection with the case.

NAUGHTY REGNA NYBORG

HER FATHER WANTS HER SENT TO REFORM SCHOOL.

A Piano Player Sentenced to Three Months In Jail For Vagrancy—An Alleged Hold-up.

In Justice Nielsen's court yesterday, Christian Nyborg swore out a complaint charging Regna, his daughter, 16 years of age, with being a vagrant, and with being beyond the control of her parents. The girl failed to go home Tuesday night, and yesterday it was learned that she had taken a northbound train at 8:30 a. m., intending to go to Denver, where she is a piano player. The girl was arrested at Ogden and taken to her father's home. Deputy Sheriff Harris went out and brought her back to the city, placing her in the county jail. She will have a hearing at 10 a. m. today. In a complaint sworn out last week by her father, charging Oliver Hunter, a colored man, with threatening to kill him, the defendant was discharged. The girl has been keeping company with the colored man, in spite of the protestations of her parents. Hunter is now doing time in the city jail for petit larceny. The Nyborgs came from Norway a few years ago and are now living on Franklin avenue.

Three Months For Vagrancy.

In police court yesterday, after hearing the evidence against Lee Rosenfield, a Hebrew, charged with vagrancy, Judge Timmony remarked that the ordinance was framed for such cases as his and that Rosenfield was a vagrant. He sentenced him to three months in jail. The testimony of the officers showed him to be a vagrant in a house of prostitution, and a vagrant in a house of prostitution. Rosenfield said he had a reputation for being a vagrant, and that he was driven by the need of money to take up his present undesirable vocation. He was sentenced to three months in jail. Rosenfield was accompanied to a house of ill repute.

Says He Was Held Up.

W. H. Ingle of the Grand Bill Postage company reported to the police early yesterday morning that, while coming home at 3:30 p. m., he was held up by a man at the corner of Second South and Second East streets. Ingle described the man who made him throw up his hands at gun point, wearing a dark suit, a white shirt and a dark tie. The police investigated the case, but failed to make anything out of it.

Sentence Suspended.

Sentence was suspended yesterday in the case of vagrancy and drunkenness against James L. Underhill, on condition that he vacate the town.

IN THE SOCIAL REEL.

Professor Stephens' singing classes will give balls at the Theatre on Friday and Saturday evenings next. On Saturday afternoon there will be a children's carnival, and on Saturday evening the members of the choir and the public generally will be entertained by a musical number. An engaged orchestra of fourteen pieces will furnish the music.

The Opal club gives a ball at Christensen's this evening.

Last night at Christensen's the regular social given by the Wednesday night club was attended and thoroughly enjoyed by all.

The Opal club will give their next ball tonight at Christensen's.

Invitations are out for a masquerade at the home of the Misses Cunningham at the home of the First street for Friday night. Over seventy-five invitations are out and a large crowd is anticipated.

Miss Cunningham will give a masquerade party at her home on First street tomorrow evening.

Mr. W. J. Lawrence gave a theatre party at his home, Nov. 15, 1937, by a supper at the home of Mrs. D. H. Hemphill.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Park gave a theatre party last night. Mr. and Mrs. McIntyre also gave a box party.

Mr. and Mrs. James Jack and family left for Los Angeles last night.

TOWN TALK.

Yesterday's clearings were $105.45, as compared with $364.59 for the same day of last year.

A meeting is to be held at the rooms of the B. of L. P. for the purpose of organizing a baseball team. Some good material is being secured. The good for the cup, should there be one to win this season.

Utah Commercial and Savings Bank.

General banking business; interest paid on savings deposits. F. Armstrong, president. E. C. Cairns, cashier. 24 East First South street.

Utah Coal.

Castle Gate and Winter Quarters, lump, nut and slack; anthracite, all sizes. D. J. SHARP, Agt., 17 South Main, Telephone No. 429.

Spring lamb, first of the season, at Palace Meat Market. Send your orders in early. J. M. Marriott, proprietor. Phone 108.

Don't forget Miss Oliver's Scotch impersonations at First Congregational church tonight. Admission, 50 cents.

ENGINEER'S MISTAKE

Three Trainmen Killed By Central Pacific Collision.

ONE LIVED AT OGDEN

FIREMAN JAMES C. HENDERSON SHOT A VICTIM.

Was a Son of the Recorder of Weber County—Engineer of a Helper Engine Brought Into a Raymond Special at Full Speed—Cause of the Collision.

(Special to The Herald.)

Ogden, March 1.—An engineer and two firemen were killed in a collision on the Central Pacific near Hot Springs, Nev., at 11 o'clock last night. A Raymond special, running as first section of eastbound passenger No. 1, collided with a helper engine on what is known as White Plains Hill. The helper had just pushed a freight over the heavy grade and was running on.

The insurance bill was also passed. This measure is aimed at assessment companies, discriminating against them strongly and favoring the fire companies.

The bill fixes the minimum school tax levy at 8 mills and the maximum at 10 mills, and the bills granting primary teachers certificates and making certain extra issued in one county good for all counties of the state, were also in the list of house bills passed.

Senator Evans, who, as some expected, but he still refused to fill the office as he did before the trouble, declined to pass points of order, etc., and referred them to the house.

During the afternoon session of the

House, March 1.—Another day passed quietly in the house, notwithstanding Averett and Hess were both back, although Hess' seat was moved some distance from where it was.

The bill fixing the minimum school tax levy at 8 mills and the maximum at 10 mills, and the bills granting primary teachers certificates and making certain extra issued in one county good for all counties of the state, were also in the list of house bills passed.

Senator Evans, who, as some expected, but he still refused to fill the office as he did before the trouble, declined to pass points of order, etc., and referred them to the house.

During the afternoon session of the

House, March 1.—Another day passed quietly in the house, notwithstanding Averett and Hess were both back, although Hess' seat was moved some distance from where it was.

The bill fixing the minimum school tax levy at 8 mills and the maximum at 10 mills, and the bills granting primary teachers certificates and making certain extra issued in one county good for all counties of the state, were also in the list of house bills passed.

Senator Evans, who, as some expected, but he still refused to fill the office as he did before the trouble, declined to pass points of order, etc., and referred them to the house.

During the afternoon session of the

House, March 1.—Another day passed quietly in the house, notwithstanding Averett and Hess were both back, although Hess' seat was moved some distance from where it was.

The bill fixing the minimum school tax levy at 8 mills and the maximum at 10 mills, and the bills granting primary teachers certificates and making certain extra issued in one county good for all counties of the state, were also in the list of house bills passed.

Senator Evans, who, as some expected, but he still refused to fill the office as he did before the trouble, declined to pass points of order, etc., and referred them to the house.

During the afternoon session of the

House, March 1.—Another day passed quietly in the house, notwithstanding Averett and Hess were both back, although Hess' seat was moved some distance from where it was.

The bill fixing the minimum school tax levy at 8 mills and the maximum at 10 mills, and the bills granting primary teachers certificates and making certain extra issued in one county good for all counties of the state, were also in the list of house bills passed.

Senator Evans, who, as some expected, but he still refused to fill the office as he did before the trouble, declined to pass points of order, etc., and referred them to the house.

During the afternoon session of the

House, March 1.—Another day passed quietly in the house, notwithstanding Averett and Hess were both back, although Hess' seat was moved some distance from where it was.

The bill fixing the minimum school tax levy at 8 mills and the maximum at 10 mills, and the bills granting primary teachers certificates and making certain extra issued in one county good for all counties of the state, were also in the list of house bills passed.

Senator Evans, who, as some expected, but he still refused to fill the office as he did before the trouble, declined to pass points of order, etc., and referred them to the house.

During the afternoon session of the

House, March 1.—Another day passed quietly in the house, notwithstanding Averett and Hess were both back, although Hess' seat was moved some distance from where it was.

The bill fixing the minimum school tax levy at 8 mills and the maximum at 10 mills, and the bills granting primary teachers certificates and making certain extra issued in one county good for all counties of the state, were also in the list of house bills passed.

Senator Evans, who, as some expected, but he still refused to fill the office as he did before the trouble, declined to pass points of order, etc., and referred them to the house.

During the afternoon session of the

House, March 1.—Another day passed quietly in the house, notwithstanding Averett and Hess were both back, although Hess' seat was moved some distance from where it was.

The bill fixing the minimum school tax levy at 8 mills and the maximum at 10 mills, and the bills granting primary teachers certificates and making certain extra issued in one county good for all counties of the state, were also in the list of house bills passed.

Senator Evans, who, as some expected, but he still refused to fill the office as he did before the trouble, declined to pass points of order, etc., and referred them to the house.

During the afternoon session of the

House, March 1.—Another day passed quietly in the house, notwithstanding Averett and Hess were both back, although Hess' seat was moved some distance from where it was.

The bill fixing the minimum school tax levy at 8 mills and the maximum at 10 mills, and the bills granting primary teachers certificates and making certain extra issued in one county good for all counties of the state, were also in the list of house bills passed.

Senator Evans, who, as some expected, but he still refused to fill the office as he did before the trouble, declined to pass points of order, etc., and referred them to the house.

During the afternoon session of the

House, March 1.—Another day passed quietly in the house, notwithstanding Averett and Hess were both back, although Hess' seat was moved some distance from where it was.

The bill fixing the minimum school tax levy at 8 mills and the maximum at 10 mills, and the bills granting primary teachers certificates and making certain extra issued in one county good for all counties of the state, were also in the list of house bills passed.

Senator Evans, who, as some expected, but he still refused to fill the office as he did before the trouble, declined to pass points of order, etc., and referred them to the house.

During the afternoon session of the

House, March 1.—Another day passed quietly in the house, notwithstanding Averett and Hess were both back, although Hess' seat was moved some distance from where it was.

The bill fixing the minimum school tax levy at 8 mills and the maximum at 10 mills, and the bills granting primary teachers certificates and making certain extra issued in one county good for all counties of the state, were also in the list of house bills passed.

Senator Evans, who, as some expected, but he still refused to fill the office as he did before the trouble, declined to pass points of order, etc., and referred them to the house.

During the afternoon session of the

House, March 1.—Another day passed quietly in the house, notwithstanding Averett and Hess were both back, although Hess' seat was moved some distance from where it was.

The bill fixing the minimum school tax levy at 8 mills and the maximum at 10 mills, and the bills granting primary teachers certificates and making certain extra issued in one county good for all counties of the state, were also in the list of house bills passed.

Senator Evans, who, as some expected, but he still refused to fill the office as he did before the trouble, declined to pass points of order, etc., and referred them to the house.

During the afternoon session of the

House, March 1.—Another day passed quietly in the house, notwithstanding Averett and Hess were both back, although Hess' seat was moved some distance from where it was.

The bill fixing the minimum school tax levy at 8 mills and the maximum at 10 mills, and the bills granting primary teachers certificates and making certain extra issued in one county good for all counties of the state, were also in the list of house bills passed.

Senator Evans, who, as some expected, but he still refused to fill the office as he did before the trouble, declined to pass points of order, etc., and referred them to the house.

During the afternoon session of the

House, March 1.—Another day passed quietly in the house, notwithstanding Averett and Hess were both back, although Hess' seat was moved some distance from where it was.

The bill fixing the minimum school tax levy at 8 mills and the maximum at 10 mills, and the bills granting primary teachers certificates and making certain extra issued in one county good for all counties of the state, were also in the list of house bills passed.

Senator Evans, who, as some expected, but he still refused to fill the office as he did before the trouble, declined to pass points of order, etc., and referred them to the house.

During the afternoon session of the

House, March 1.—Another day passed quietly in the house, notwithstanding Averett and Hess were both back, although Hess' seat was moved some distance from where it was.

The bill fixing the minimum school tax levy at 8 mills and the maximum at 10 mills, and the bills granting primary teachers certificates and making certain extra issued in one county good for all counties of the state, were also in the list of house bills passed.

Senator Evans, who, as some expected, but he still refused to fill the office as he did before the trouble, declined to pass points of order, etc., and referred them to the house.

During the afternoon session of the

House, March 1.—Another day passed quietly in the house, notwithstanding Averett and Hess were both back, although Hess' seat was moved some distance from where it was.

The bill fixing the minimum school tax levy at 8 mills and the maximum at 10 mills, and the bills granting primary teachers certificates and making certain extra issued in one county good for all counties of the state, were also in the list of house bills passed.

Senator Evans, who, as some expected, but he still refused to fill the office as he did before the trouble, declined to pass points of order, etc., and referred them to the house.

During the afternoon session of the

House, March 1.—Another day passed quietly in the house, notwithstanding Averett and Hess were both back, although Hess' seat was moved some distance from where it was.

The bill fixing the minimum school tax levy at 8 mills and the maximum at 10 mills, and the bills granting primary teachers certificates and making certain extra issued in one county good for all counties of the state, were also in the list of house bills passed.

Senator Evans, who, as some expected, but he still refused to fill the office as he did before the trouble, declined to pass points of order, etc., and referred them to the house.

During the afternoon session of the

House, March 1.—Another day passed quietly in the house, notwithstanding Averett and Hess were both back, although Hess' seat was moved some distance from where it was.

The bill fixing the minimum school tax levy at 8 mills and the maximum at 10 mills, and the bills granting primary teachers certificates and making certain extra issued in one county good for all counties of the state, were also in the list of house bills passed.

Senator Evans, who, as some expected, but he still refused to fill the office as he did before the trouble, declined to pass points of order, etc., and referred them to the house.

During the afternoon session of the

House, March 1.—Another day passed quietly in the house, notwithstanding Averett and Hess were both back, although Hess' seat was moved some distance from where it was.

The bill fixing the minimum school tax levy at 8 mills and the maximum at 10 mills, and the bills granting primary teachers certificates and making certain extra issued in one county good for all counties of the state, were also in the list of house bills passed.

Senator Evans, who, as some expected, but he still refused to fill the office as he did before the trouble, declined to pass points of order, etc., and referred them to the house.

During the afternoon session of the

House, March 1.—Another day passed quietly in the house, notwithstanding Averett and Hess were both back, although Hess' seat was moved some distance from where it was.

The bill fixing the minimum school tax levy at 8 mills and the maximum at 10 mills, and the bills granting primary teachers certificates and making certain extra issued in one county good for all counties of the state, were also in the list of house bills passed.

Senator Evans, who, as some expected, but he still refused to fill the office as he did before the trouble, declined to pass points of order, etc., and referred them to the house.

During the afternoon session of the

House, March 1.—Another day passed quietly in the house, notwithstanding Averett and Hess were both back, although Hess' seat was moved some distance from where it was.

The bill fixing the minimum school tax levy at 8 mills and the maximum at 10 mills, and the bills granting primary teachers certificates and making certain extra issued in one county good for all counties of the state, were also in the list of house bills passed.

Senator Evans, who, as some expected, but he still refused to fill the office as he did before the trouble, declined to pass points of order, etc., and referred them to the house.

During the afternoon session of the

IDAHO'S LEGISLATIVE MILL

MANY BILLS PASSED IN EACH HOUSE.

Important Measure Affecting Insurance Companies—Anti-Hobo Bill Killed—Evans Has Not Resigned.

(Special to The Herald.)

Boise, Ida., March 1.—Another day passed quietly in the house, notwithstanding Averett and Hess were both back, although Hess' seat was moved some distance from where it was. The bill fixing the minimum school tax levy at 8 mills and the maximum at 10 mills, and the bills granting primary teachers certificates and making certain extra issued in one county good for all counties of the state, were also in the list of house bills passed.

Senator Evans, who, as some expected, but he still refused to fill the office as he did before the trouble, declined to pass points of order, etc., and referred them to the house.

During the afternoon session of the

House, March 1.—Another day passed quietly in the house, notwithstanding Averett and Hess were both back, although Hess' seat was moved some distance from where it was.

The bill fixing the minimum school tax levy at 8 mills and the maximum at 10 mills, and the bills granting primary teachers certificates and making certain extra issued in one county good for all counties of the state, were also in the list of house bills passed.

Senator Evans, who, as some expected, but he still refused to fill the office as he did before the trouble, declined to pass points of order, etc., and referred them to the house.

During the afternoon session of the

House, March 1.—Another day passed quietly in the house, notwithstanding Averett and Hess were both back, although Hess' seat was moved some distance from where it was.